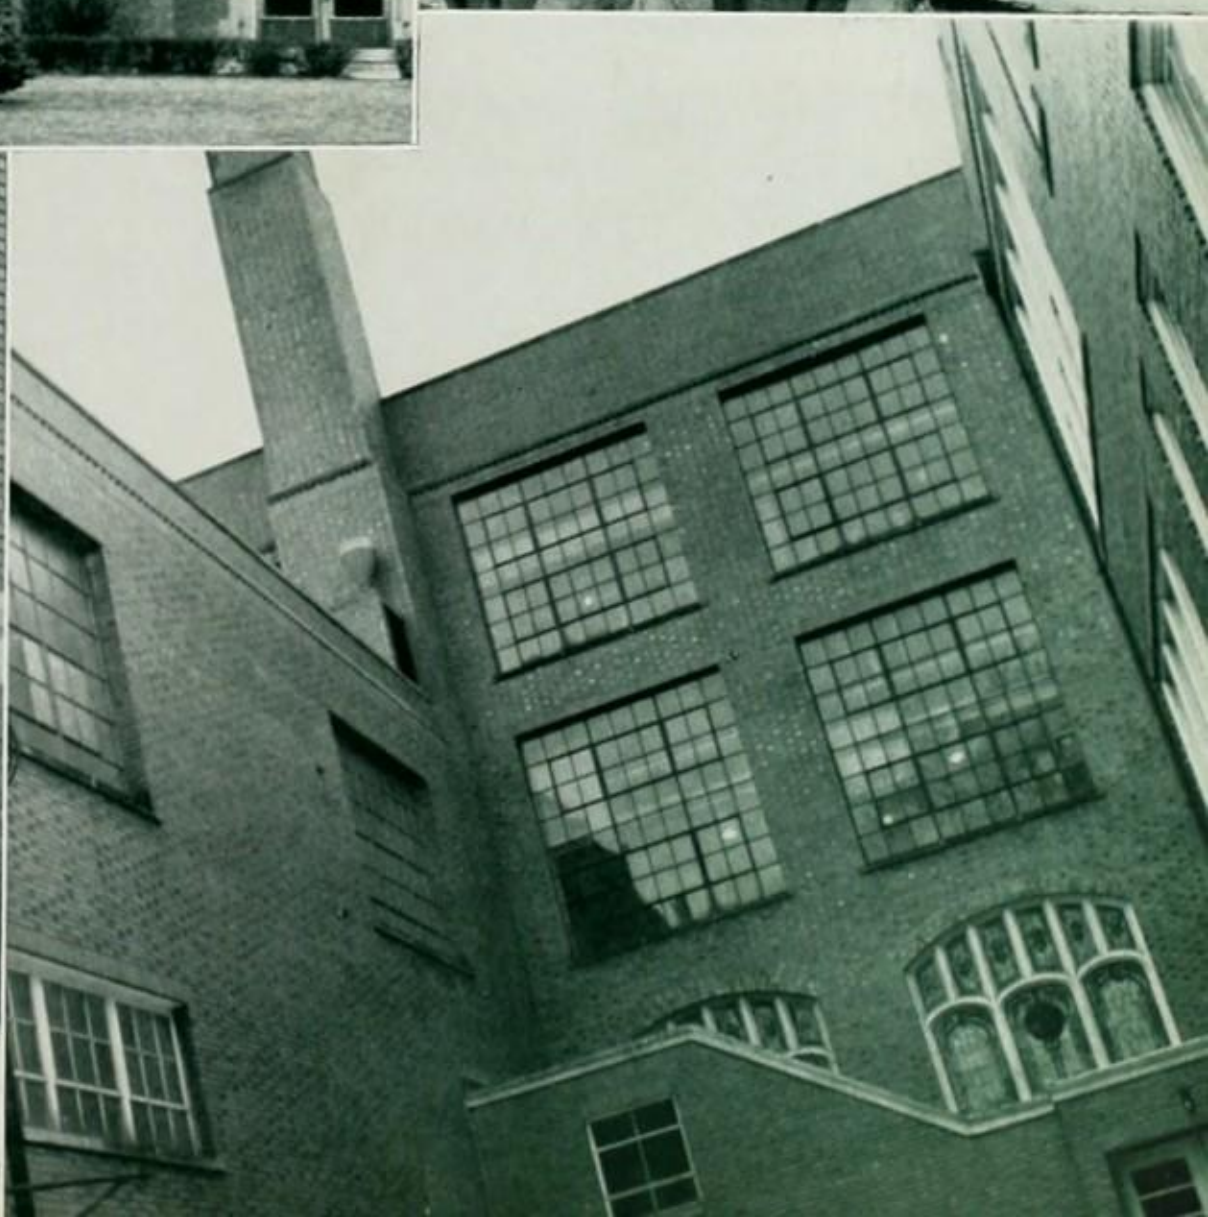
RED And BLACK

NINETEEN FORTY ONE

seventh grade

Hoskinston High School



Foreword

THE underlying theme of the 1941 Red and Black is an attempt to show how the many parts of Fostoria High School, while distinct units in themselves, can not exist most satisfactorily except in co-operation with each other member of the entirety. This, we think, is the way of life itself.

The Annual staff of 1941 has certainly lived up to this idea of co-operation among the parts. The co-operative spirit of our faculty advisers, staff heads, and staff members has contributed more to this volume than anything else. Thus, we of the 1941 Red and Black Annual staff present this picture of our school to you in the hope that you will forever keep its memory fresh in your minds.

Fostoria High School

Fostoria, Ohio

Faculty

There are two main parts to the body of Fostoria High School. These are the faculty and the students. In matters of government, discipline, activities, and school advancement, the faculty is always completely ready to give counsel or instruction. Co-operation, the key-note in our school life, is well carried out by the faculty in all school problems.

Student Body

Fostoria High students present a picture of active participation in classes, clubs, and other school activities. Rather than being subordinate to the faculty, the students are working with that part of the school body on co-operative basis. Through Student Council, accounting, library, nurses' staff, cafeteria, Journal work, and numerous other activities, students are given experience in carrying on affairs.

Athletics

To make school life a unity, a certain spirit and zeal are needed.

The operation of the athletic squads, including coaches, managers, teams, and cheerleaders contributes much to this end. Here, in the fundamentals and in finer points, are literally realized the bonds that bind the school in other parts also.

Music

Characterizing music are traits of harmony which tend towards unity. In any complete school program, a music department is essential. Its usefulness is felt in assemblies, concerts, plays, and other activities.

In music is found culture and a rare truth. Browning said, "I hold no truer truth obtainable by man than comes of music."

Extra Curricular Activities

Leisure time, a modern problem, is solved in school by extra-curricular activities. Here, the tendency towards co-operation is evident. As officers and members, students gain invaluable experience in leadership and service. Some school organizations correspond with courses of study while others are primarily service clubs. All clubs combine pleasure with service and improvement.

Advertising

This practical and very necessary portion is contributed by the Fostoria merchants who wished to co-operate in working toward the successful presentation of this annual for the school year of 1940-41. Without these people, participating in various school activities whenever they are needed, many ideas which are formulated could never be realized materially.

Administration

In harmony with the Board of Education, whose members represent the community, the superintendent of schools and the principal of Fostoria High carry on the idea of co-operation by managing administrative situations and student problems to conform to our school's traditional practices and modern community standards.

The deans help in this respect by handling vocational and educational guidance within the school. This includes actual guidance classes, conferring with students individually, visiting homes, and looking after attendance problems. Certain personal relationships are not taken to the principal unless they involve matters of school policy or discipline.

The program of studies, class room methods, the general guidance and discipline problems are all dependent on the ultimate united spirit and efficiency of the whole administration which works co-operatively for the school system's general good.

Ivan Harrison, clerk and superintendent of maintenance; Supt. H. L. Ford, H. L. Zemer, D. D. Schlatter, vice president; R. J. Carter, and F. J. Kinnaman, president.

The Board of Education

Mr. Kinnaman became a member in 1934. He is the head of the Kinnaman Electrical Service of Fostoria. Mr. Schlatter has been serving since 1932. He is now retired from an active vocation and spends a peaceful home life. Mr. Carter was first elected in 1932. He is the president of the Pressed Steel Corporation. Mr. Zemer became a member in 1932. He manages the Geo. Freese and Sons Creamery. Mr. Harrison came in this year. He is an agriculturist and resides north of town.

The Fostoria High School Principal

MISS MABEL J. BOURQUIN

Words cannot express all she means to us. In our thoughts and dreams her greatness prevails. To her we bring our troubles and from her we receive our encouragement.

MR. W. W. NIXON

Cooperation seems to be a cardinal principle with the Senior Dean of Boys. That helps to explain his splendid achievements in the giving of advice and guidance.

The Senior High School Deans

MISS VERA EGER

Her ready willingness to guide and advise has made Miss Eger an ideal dean for studying and building the fine characters in the women of tomorrow.

MR. NORMAN WICKS

A combination of a fatherly dean and a "regular fellow" Mr. Wicks understands the troubles of boys of Junior High school age.

Faculty

THE varied personalities of our faculty establish a balance and harmony in the student's heart and mind and probably do more to round out the student's own personality than any other factor in the school. With so many fine examples of different personalities, the student has a chance to choose traits from each one and add them to his own.

The faculty members, themselves, have been brought closer together this year by the many committee and subcommittee meetings required to prepare for and analyze the evaluation. The increased contact among themselves, aided by contacts with the members of the evaluating committee, has increased the caliber of the faculty personality as a whole.

Departments

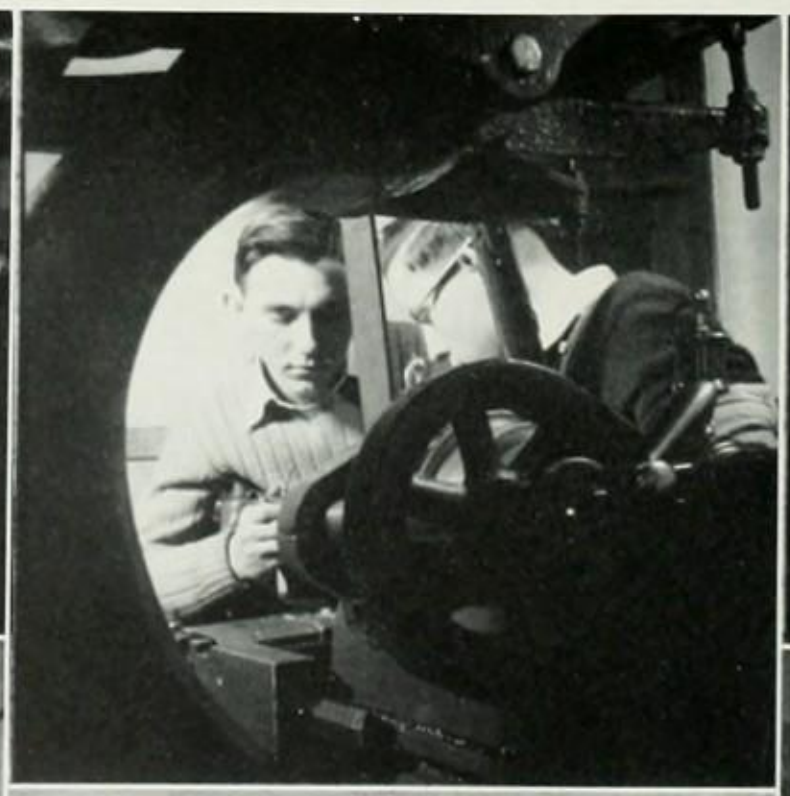
In the philosophy of Fostoria High School, put in writing for the occasion of the evaluation, there is the following passage:

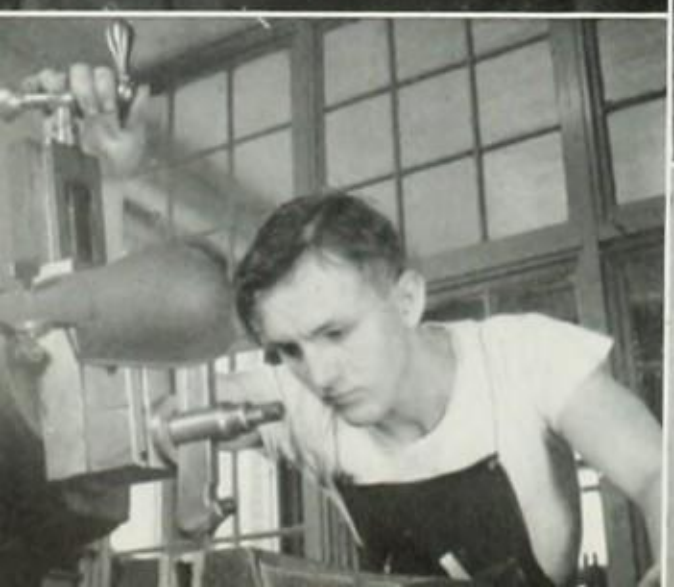
"Since we maintain that each student should be prepared for the most effective and active citizenship possible, we must afford a curriculum in which the instructors are free to organize the subject matter in the form of activities which encourage the development of the student's whole personality."

Our teachers carry out this philosophy not only as individuals but co-operatively in groups. For instance, English 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 are separate entities, but not to the extent that any single one can ignore any other one. Therefore, Fostoria High English teachers work as a group known as the Department of English and Speech.

This co-operative effort is carried out throughout the whole faculty and the following pages show the groups or departments into which they resolve themselves.

The picture below shows scenes from the machine shop, the newest division of the Department of Industries. Fostoria High is conscious of modern trends and also makes efforts to further national goals.





English and Speech

The culture and intellect of a person are often measured by his ability to express himself effectively. Fostoria High has seven instructors in the English department for this purpose.

Student Body

THE student body of a high school can make or break the school's reputation. Thanks to an understanding and tactful faculty, our students have developed characters which would be an asset to any school. The Evaluating Committee brought this out in the recent inspection and especially congratulated the students on their courtesy.

We are evaluated by a chosen committee very seldom; but we are always being evaluated by the public—our severest critic and best appraiser. May the students of Fostoria High School always live up to the highest standards and ever do things worthy of a citizen of the United States of America.

Wisdom Lingers

"Knowledge comes, but wisdom lingers."
—Tennyson

These walls shall crumble into dust,
As each tower of learning must;
Ages hence the roof will fall
And settle slowly over all,
But echoes of learning long will stay
And ghosts of musty books delay
Till Phoenix rise again in flame,

The while some sage of future name
Will search the stars until he find
The golden gleam of all mankind;
Through wisdom that burns his heart
and eyes,
Through life and death he will realize,
The answer to Ultimate Truth must be Completed in Eternity.

Maintenance

The untiring efforts of our maintenance crew have indeed added to the charm and beauty of this school.

Within these walls, spacious corridors and modern classrooms keep the lustre and cleanliness that mark a school of the first degree. The well-heated rooms, oiled floors, and varnished desks give substance to the idea that our building is a fortress of learning. On the outside is a beautifully landscaped campus.

To those who keep our school in such good condition we owe a great debt of gratitude.

Athletics

THE athletic department of Fostoria High School has not only strived for successfulness in athletics, but for the betterment of the individuals in such ways as the physical development of the body, the ability to follow orders, and the promotion of cooperation.

In an indirect way, the whole student body takes part in the athletic system of our school. As spectators from the sidelines they have made our school noted for its courtesy towards visitors.

The students have not only shown the pep and spirit that push the team on to victory, but also an ability to take defeat in stride and to congratulate the winners. Our school can well be proud of these qualities. So, orchids to the athletic department and the young men who have helped our school's good name this season.

"IKE" TRUBEY
Head Coach

Coach D. W. Trubey is a graduate of Wittenberg University where he left an enviable record in football. Stressing, for the most part, straight football, he is an advocate of the single-wing formation. "Ike" has produced teams of which the school can well be proud.

Assistant Coach Lewis is a graduate of Miami University where he was well known as a football player. He is a good backfield coach and a pal to every boy on the squad, although he is a hard driver.

MANAGERS AND TRAINER

Getting ticket salesmen for games, arranging for trips, and supervising student managers are a few of the jobs of Faculty Manager W. W. Nixon. These have been done exceptionally well.

Much of the success of the team must be attributed to "Al" Sawdy for his fine job as trainer. Showing his regard for the boys by keeping them in good shape was his job. Such a man is truly an asset to any team.

The student managers are the boys who are in charge of the equipment and must keep it in faultless shape. They deserve all the credit for the fine appearance of the team.

Varsity Football

ST. WENDELIN

The Redmen opened the football season this year by beating the St. Wendelin Mohawks again, by a score of 12 to 7, although St. Wendelin had a very strong team.

MOOSEHART

Moosehart is very well known for the football teams it puts out. Fostoria entered the game as underdogs in the minds of most of the fans; but under the captainship of Jim Maurer and Frank Saldausky, Coach Trubey's boys ended the fray with a victory of 26-6.

DEFIANCE

Although Fostoria did not score until after half time, the boys ran rampant over Defiance to score 7 points in the third period and 12 in the fourth for a grand total of 19 to Defiance's 0.

BUCYRUS

The much talked-up Bucyrus 11 took a solid trouncing to the tune of 25-0. Bob Might opened Fostoria's scoring attack by intercepting a pass in the first few minutes. Touchdowns were made by R. Might, W. Franklin, C. Franklin, and A. Bulkowski.

FREMONT

The Fremont contest went very decidedly in the favor of Fostoria. Touchdowns were made by Might, who tallied 2; Chapman, 1; Bulkowski, 1; and J. C. Johnson, 1; for a total of 35 points; Fremont got only 12 points.

BOWLING GREEN

Fostoria's 11 men took the Bowling Green Bobcats into camp without much trouble. Fostoria rolled up 38 points while the Bobcats failed to tally a single point.

FINDLAY

After Fostoria had scored a touchdown in the fourth quarter to make the score 13-12 in favor of the Redmen, the Blue and Gold marched down the field for another tally to make the score 18-13 in favor of Findlay.

LIMA SOUTH

Although badly outweighed by the heavy Lima South team, the Redmen outplayed Lima at almost every turn. The mighty arm of Bob Might proved a great asset to F. H. S. because he completed 6 out of 11 tosses. The Redmen only tallied 7 points but kept Lima from getting a single point.

JUNIOR HOME

Junior Home gave the Redmen their first defeat of the season by a score of 14-0.

TIFFIN COLUMBIAN

In a very tight squeeze, the Fostoria 11 fought out a hard victory over Tiffin Columbian to the tune of 14-12. Wayne Bennett was the hero of the game because of his expert toework for points after touchdowns.

Athletic

The members of the Athletic Board are not so well known as the players and the coaches. They should be given some credit for our fine showing in athletics this year.

The men who make this board are Coach Dwight Trubey, W. W. Nixon, Faculty Manager, Principal W. M. Hawk, Supt. H. L. Ford, Treasurer G. D. Knepper, and R. J. Carter, member of the Board of Education. They are the ones who direct athletics from the background and try to keep the school's good name in being.

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT

Lima South	43	31

Though not winning a great number of games this year, the varsity repeatedly played close, fast games and sometimes only lost by 1 point. Much to our satisfaction, and theirs, they won the city championship from St. Wendelin by playing some of the best games of the year. Throughout all the games the boys played fairly good ball and held and showed the fine sportsmanship which has been evident in Fostoria High's interscholastic competition of the past years.

True to tradition, the Redmen played each game vigorously until the final gun, playing and hoping to add points to their lead or to assure themselves of a victory or close defeat.

By their preliminary games, many reserve teams tend to keep the spectators and varsity teams in spirit when the varsity isn't having a very successful year and our own papooses deserve a hand in this very thing. The F. H. S. papooses had the spectators on their feet many a time in many a game this year and finished as the winners, thereby keeping the people in spirits and giving them confidence for the next game.

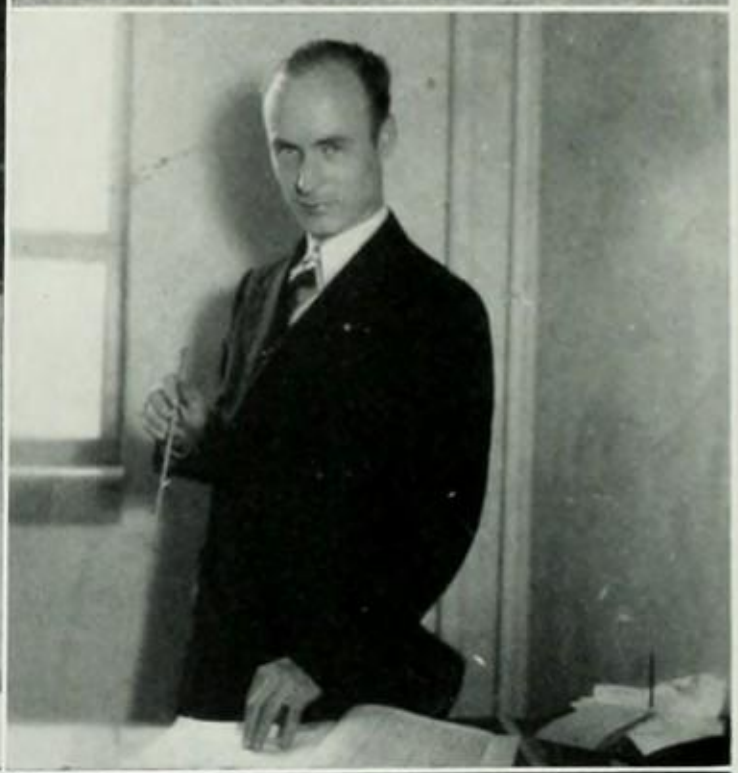
Music

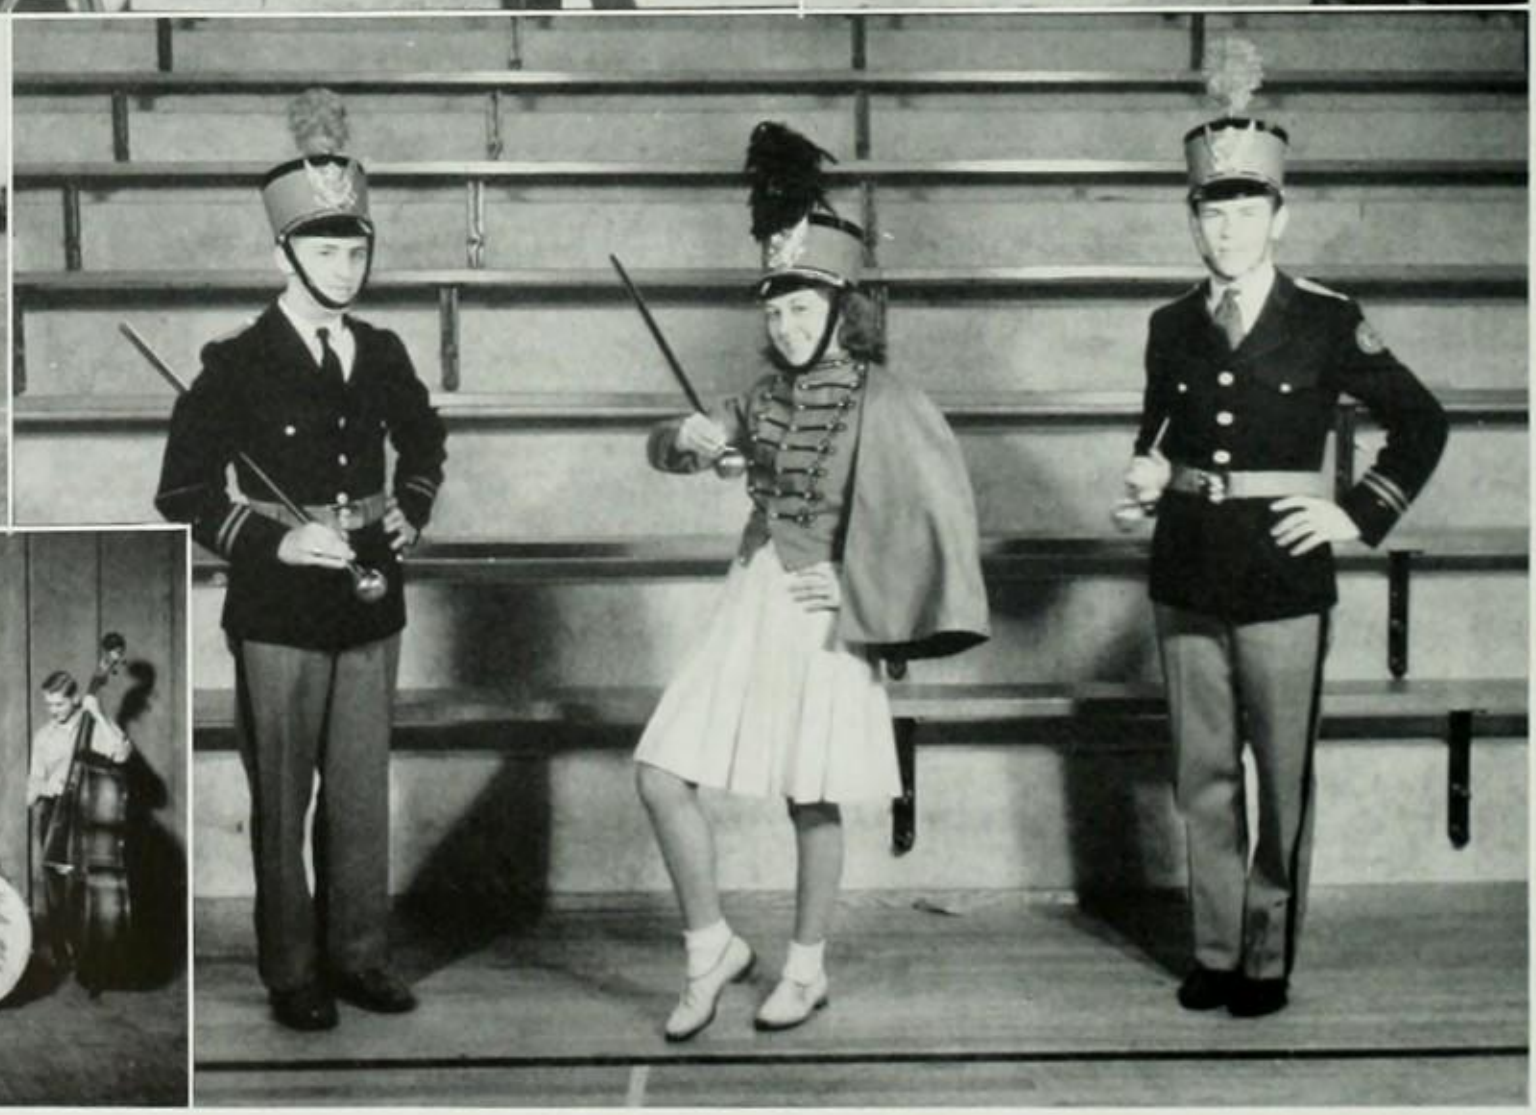
WHEN Longfellow wrote the quotation, "Music is the universal language of mankind," he spoke a truth that has never been doubted.

Even before Christ's birth, singing and playing ability was very great. Many historical facts have been handed down through the various lyrics and ballads.

The civilization of today lives and thrives on music, both classical and popular. There is music for every mood: sadness, war, weddings, happiness, and death.

Music is a part of oneself. Without music one is figuratively dead. As a result, music is necessarily a part of school, which is part of life itself.





Instrumental Music

MR. A. JERD BAYLESS, Director

Emerging this year for the first time were two distinct organizations: the little symphony orchestra and the basketball band. The little symphony made the rounds of the grade schools to show the youngsters how the different instruments are played (which end to blow in, what to press down or to push and pull, and the moans and groans that emerge from the bell when the preceding directions are followed). The basketball band added to the life of the crowd in addition to the task of filling the idle minutes between periods and games.

Director Bayless' past record proves that he is an accomplished fingerer of the gobstick (clarinet to you). This should be a definite asset to the wood-wind section, who have little experience in the tooting of their horns.

The signs of a dance band, which has been missing from the school for some time, showed promise this year. The boys backing this much-needed movement, which adds to the experience of each and every individual partaking in it, deserve a chunk of misused rasin, a bottle of 3-in-one oil, a spitoon and a battered pigskin for their efforts. We trust that such an organization will, in the near future, furnish music for the brawls and balls in "our dear ole Alma Mater."

Vocal Music

From the date of its inception, six years ago, the vocal music department has been realizing a gradual improvement, resulting from laborious, serious work by the student choristers.

Today, our school is proud of the A Cappella choir, the boys' and girls' glee clubs, the chorus, and a boys' A Cappella choir. These organizations create color, atmosphere, and feeling in our productions. The members of these organizations are always working for the ultimate goal of perfection and style.

Under the continued direction of Wallace T. Fisher, future singers will undoubtedly realize still finer things in the school choral field. The progress thus achieved is the result of the spontaneous and inspirational attitude toward music by the singers and their director.

Operetta

Ira B. Wilson's "The Forest Prince" was presented by a cast of 70 vocal students. It was a great pleasure to hear the choir sing with orchestral accompaniment such familiar Tschaikowski songs as "Wild and Free" (Trepak), "Sweet to Remember" (Andante Cantabile, from the Fifth Symphony), and many numbers from "The Nut-Cracker Suite", the grand finale being "Hail to Our Forest Prince" (Heroic March).

The students not only showed their talent in singing under Mr. Fisher's direction, but also in the speaking and acting supervised by the dramatic teacher, Mr. Leiter.

Extra-Curricular Activities

THE extra-curricular activities of the school are created to build and strengthen a student's mind so that he may have a better knowledge of how to cope with difficult situations that may confront him after graduation from Fostoria High School.

The activities are enough in number and sufficiently varied in purpose to give the student a well rounded education other than mere book learning; but even over and above education are the life-long friends one makes while participating in the activities.

Extra-curricular activities are not only beneficial to the student, but they also provide entertainment for the community and help to advertise our community over the state.

Hi-Y

MR. GEORGE EVANS, Adviser

The membership of the Hi-Y club has been steadily growing. There were this year 31 Seniors and 37 Juniors. The Hi-Y and G. R. worked jointly at the football and basketball games and together sponsored several activities. The club has made it a policy to visit a different church of Fostoria each month. To be a member of this outstanding organization is a privilege and honor.

FIRST ROW: M. Carter, D. Decker, S. Creeger, J. Wade, S. Harris, M. Ruehle, M. Callendar, M. Preis, J. Jacoby, B. Powelson, B. Warner, T. Smith, J. Peck. SECOND ROW: P. Lamphear, J. Coppus, J. Scholarship Team

PRINCIPAL W. M. HAWK, Adviser

Culminating the scholastic program, students whose grades were high enough to make them eligible participated in scholarship tests at Bowling Green State University on May 3. The tests were given not only in the traditional academic subjects such as mathematics and languages, but also in the commercial subjects, typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping.

FIRST ROW: J. Maurer, B. Fast, D. Lapidos, L. French, M. France, J. Coppus, C. Brandeberry, D. Baker, W. Franklin. SECOND ROW: D. Coppus, R. A. Flechtner, S. Creeger, P. Brubaker, F. Snavely, E. National Honor Society

MISS VIRGINIA CRAWFORD, Adviser

This year, all students in the upper third of the Junior and Senior classes filled out a sheet on which the following information was given: club membership, offices held, advisers, home room since ninth grade, and any other information one wished to contribute. Teachers were permitted to write statements concerning the individual on these sheets which were then given to the faculty committee to aid them in their choice.

Dramatics

MR. C. F. LEITER, Director

The Contest Play

"Land's End", a drama written by Denis Plimmer, was the one-act play contest entry this year. It had three separate casts. The play won a rating of excellent at the Thespian contest in Cleveland.

CONTEST PLAY
"LAND'S END"

ALL-SCHOOL PLAY

The All-School Play

"The Two Orphans", a melodrama, was given for the all-school play. It contained both drama and comedy which held the close attention of the audience. Because of the co-operation of the players and the expert directing, the play was a complete triumph.

The Junior Class Play

The Junior class presented the excellent comedy, "What a Life", featuring Henry Aldrich, the typical high school boy who is always getting into some kind of mischief. Each characterization was done with perfection and excellence.

The Senior Class Play

As their final performance the Seniors presented Sutton Vane's drama "Outward Bound", with its theory of immortality. The atmosphere, along with excellent acting, produced a suspense that lasted until the final curtain.

Debate

MR. C. F. LEITER, Coach

Three complete squads came through the season with flying colors in debating an extremely timely topic, "Resolved: That the Powers of the Federal Government Should Be Increased."

GIRLS: Janet Fast, Jeanne Wendel, Mary Jane Davis, Mateel Preis, Phyllis Smothers. BOYS: Harold Potts, Carl Shiff, Roger Hill, K. Speelman, Don Munger, Lowell Barkley, Dale Harrison, Paul Might, Joy Shuman.

FIRST ROW: M. France, R. Huffman, I. Copley, M. Hill, M. Segner, W. Franklin, R. Flechtner, J. Wendel, D. Decker, M. Preis, D. Rowe. SECOND ROW: J. Munger, R. Hill, H. Potts, C. Shiff, H. Rowe, L. Barkley, E. R. Gair, A. Anderson, B. Anderson, B. Lord. THIRD ROW: P. Might, P. Ruhl, D. Harrison, P. Brubaker, D. Stouffer, M. Ruehle, G. Nichols, B. Manecke, J. Snavely. FOURTH ROW: J. Zemer, J. Jacoby, A. Ford, J. Shuman, B. McDaniel, M. Seiple, J. Graf, C. Basehore.

This club sponsors the yearly drama contest in which the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes participate. It awards a medal to the best actor in the contest.

Advertisements

THE following advertisers make Fostoria. They make us and we make them.

If Fostoria didn't have these concerns, there would be no city of Fostoria as we see it today. Instead, there would be a small village with no beautiful homes, streets, and public buildings.

It is these factories, stores, and offices that "makes us"; but, if they didn't have help from us, they couldn't exist. We must not only work for and in these concerns, but we should patronize them so they can keep going and support an ever-increasing population, making Fostoria a bigger and better town.

We thank our patrons.
